

PASS E-Conferences

Kimberly Nunnally

Tele-Conferences
Date	Begin Time	End Time	Regions	Audience	Topic	Description
9/12/2007	10:00 AM	12:00 PM	Essex, Richmond, Henrico	PASS	Building Capacity at the School Site: Building Awareness of the Need for Change	Effective leadership is shared by uniting all stakeholders around the collective vision of school success.
10/10/2007	10:00 AM	12:00 PM	Essex, Richmond, Henrico	PASS	What Does Effective Student Remediation Look Like?	Remediation must be planned after examining data. Long-term success will be the result of quality, targeted instruction and continuous data collection.
11/14/2007	10:00 AM	12:00 PM	Essex, Richmond, Henrico	PASS	Classroom Instruction That Works	Teachers have a profound influence on student learning and must use effective instructional strategies to maximize student learning and enhance student achievement.
1/9/2008	10:00 AM	12:00 PM	Essex, Richmond, Henrico	PASS	Effective Leadership That Works: Understanding the Needs of the School	Each school is unique, so effective leaders focus on the unique strengths and needs of the school's faculty, student population, and community priorities. Ideas will be shared.
2/13/2008	10:00 AM	12:00 PM	Essex, Richmond, Henrico	PASS	Building Capacity at the School Site: Establishing Professional Learning Communities and Managing the Change Process	Organizing the faculty into study groups that meet regularly promotes professional development focused on solving school based problems and maximizing student success.
4/9/2008	10:00 AM	12:00 PM	Essex, Richmond, Henrico	PASS	Effective Leadership That Works: Monitoring and Providing Feedback of Effective Instruction	When teachers implement effective instructional strategies they need observation, feedback, coaching, and praise. Effective leaders monitor and provide such feedback.
6/4/2008	10:00 AM	12:00 PM	Essex, Richmond, Henrico	PASS	Effective Leadership That Works: Planning and Prioritizing the Day	The task of creating the master schedule falls to the school leader. Effective scheduling practices to facilitate student achievement and tips for monitoring instruction will be shared.
9/25/2007	10:00 AM	12:00 PM	Lunenburg, Franklin, Greenville, Pr Edward	PASS	Building Capacity at the School Site: Building Awareness of the Need for Change	Effective leadership is shared by uniting all stakeholders around the collective vision of school success.
10/23/2007	10:00 AM	12:00 PM	Lunenburg, Franklin, Greenville, Pr Edward	PASS	What Does Effective Student Remediation Look Like?	Remediation must be planned after examining data. Long-term success will be the result of quality, targeted instruction and continuous data collection.

Tele-Conferences

Date	Begin Time	End Time	Regions	Audience	Topic	Description
11/27/2007	10:00 AM	12:00 PM	Lunenburg, Franklin, Greenville, Pr Edward	PASS	Classroom Instruction That Works	Teachers have a profound influence on student learning and must use effective instructional strategies to maximize student learning and enhance student achievement.
1/22/2008	10:00 AM	12:00 PM	Lunenburg, Franklin, Greenville, Pr Edward	PASS	Effective Leadership That Works: Understanding the Needs of the School	Each school is unique, so effective leaders focus on the unique strengths and needs of the school's faculty, student population, and community priorities. Ideas will be shared.
2/26/2008	10:00 AM	12:00 PM	Lunenburg, Franklin, Greenville, Pr Edward	PASS	Building Capacity at the School Site: Establishing Professional Learning Communities and Managing the Change Process	Organizing the faculty into study groups that meet regularly promotes professional development focused on solving school based problems and maximizing student success.
4/22/2008	10:00 AM	12:00 PM	Lunenburg, Franklin, Greenville, Pr Edward	PASS	Effective Leadership That Works: Monitoring and Providing Feedback of Effective Instruction	When teachers attempt to implement effective instructional strategies they need observation, feedback, coaching, and praise. Effective leaders monitor and provide such feedback.
6/4/2008	10:00 AM	12:00 PM	Lunenburg, Franklin, Greenville, Pr Edward	PASS	Effective Leadership That Works: Planning and Prioritizing the Day	The task of creating the master schedule falls to the school leader. Effective scheduling practices to facilitate student achievement and tips for monitoring instruction will be shared.
9/13/2007	10:00 AM	12:00 PM	Martinsville, Lee, Buchanan, Tazewell	PASS	Building Capacity at the School Site: Building Awareness of the Need for Change	Effective leadership is shared by uniting all stakeholders around the collective vision of school success.
10/11/2007	10:00 AM	12:00 PM	Martinsville, Lee, Buchanan, Tazewell	PASS	What Does Effective Student Remediation Look Like?	Remediation must be planned after examining data. Long-term success will be the result of quality, targeted instruction and continuous data collection.
11/8/2007	10:00 AM	12:00 PM	Martinsville, Lee, Buchanan, Tazewell	PASS	Classroom Instruction That Works	Teachers have a profound influence on student learning and must use effective instructional strategies to maximize student learning and enhance student achievement.
1/10/2008	10:00 AM	12:00 PM	Martinsville, Lee, Buchanan, Tazewell	PASS	Effective Leadership That Works: Understanding the Needs of the School	Each school is unique, so effective leaders focus on the unique strengths and needs of the school's faculty, student population, and community priorities. Ideas will be shared.
2/14/2008	10:00 AM	12:00 PM	Martinsville, Lee, Buchanan, Tazewell	PASS	Building Capacity at the School Site: Establishing Professional Learning Communities and Managing the Change Process	Organizing the faculty into study groups that meet regularly promotes professional development focused on solving school based problems and maximizing student success.

Tele-Conferences

Date	Begin Time	End Time	Regions	Audience	Topic	Description
4/10/2008	10:00 AM	12:00 PM	Martinsville, Lee, Buchanan, Tazewell	PASS	Effective Leadership That Works: Monitoring and Providing Feedback of Effective Instruction	When teachers attempt to implement effective instructional strategies they need observation, feedback, coaching, and praise. Effective leaders monitor and provide such feedback.
6/3/2008	10:00 AM	12:00 PM	Martinsville, Lee, Buchanan, Tazewell	PASS	Effective Leadership That Works: Planning and Prioritizing the Day	The task of creating the master schedule falls to the school leader. Effective scheduling practices to facilitate student achievement and tips for monitoring instruction will be shared.
9/18/2007	10:00 AM	12:00 PM	Portsmouth	PASS	Building Capacity at the School Site: Building Awareness of the Need for Change	Effective leadership is shared by uniting all stakeholders around the collective vision of school success.
10/16/2007	10:00 AM	12:00 PM	Portsmouth	PASS	What Does Effective Student Remediation Look Like?	Remediation must be planned after examining data. Long-term success will be the result of quality, targeted instruction and continuous data collection.
11/20/2007	10:00 AM	12:00 PM	Portsmouth	PASS	Classroom Instruction That Works	Teachers have a profound influence on student learning and must use effective instructional strategies to maximize student learning and enhance student achievement.
1/15/2008	10:00 AM	12:00 PM	Portsmouth	PASS	Effective Leadership That Works: Understanding the Needs of the School	Each school is unique, so effective leaders focus on the unique strengths and needs of the school's faculty, student population, and community priorities. Ideas will be shared.
2/19/2008	10:00 AM	12:00 PM	Portsmouth	PASS	Building Capacity at the School Site: Establishing Professional Learning Communities and Managing the Change Process	Organizing the faculty into study groups that meet regularly promotes professional development focused on solving school based problems and maximizing student success.
4/15/2008	10:00 AM	12:00 PM	Portsmouth	PASS	Effective Leadership That Works: Monitoring and Providing Feedback of Effective Instruction	When teachers attempt to implement effective instructional strategies they need observation, feedback, coaching, and praise. Effective leaders monitor and provide such feedback.
6/3/2008	10:00 AM	12:00 PM	Portsmouth	PASS	Effective Leadership That Works: Planning and Prioritizing the Day	The task of creating the master schedule falls to the school leader. Effective scheduling practices to facilitate student achievement and tips for monitoring instruction will be shared.